7 Plaintiff,

8 vs.

9 ZEVGOLATIO CORPORATION, ET AL.,

10 Defendants.

CASE NO. 19-cv-02005-YGR

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

11 TO COUNSEL AND ALL PARTIES OF RECORD: This is the third order the Court has 12 had to issue in an attempt to confirm compliance with General Order 56. The Court will allow the 13 parties one final opportunity to comply before assessing sanctions against each in the amount of 14 $200.

15 General Order ¶ 7(c) provides that “[e]ach party shall be represented at the joint site
16 inspection by a person with knowledge about the facts of the case and the authority to settle the 17 injunctive relief claims. If a plaintiff asserts claims based on the accessibility of a website or 18 mobile software application, a defendant also shall be represented at the joint site inspection by 19 person(s) with the best possible technical knowledge regarding the website or mobile software
20 application at issue.” Plaintiff claims that a site inspection occurred but does not identify who was 21 present on behalf of defendant. Defendant claims it did not happen. The Court requires clarity. If 22 an inspection in compliance with General Order ¶ 7(c) did not occur, the parties SHALL schedule
23 the same to occur within 35 days or be subject to sanctions.

24 Further, in conformity with General Order ¶ 8, the joint site inspection SHALL occur at the 25 same time as an “in-person settlement meeting.” The settlement meeting SHALL occur at the same 26 time and location as the joint site inspection.

27 The parties SHALL provide the Court with the date and time of the inspection/settlement
28 conference and the identities of those who will attend.

A compliance hearing shall be held on the Court’s 9:01 a.m. calendar on Friday, February 14, 2020, in Courtroom 1 of the United States Courthouse located at 1301 Clay Street in Oakland, California. No later than five (5) business days prior to the date of the compliance hearing, the parties shall file a response to this Order to Show Cause. If compliance is complete, the parties need not appear, and the compliance hearing will be taken off calendar.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
